Miracle on 34th Street is a classic tale of believing in something when common sense tells you not to. Kris Kringle is a kindly old man hired by Macy's department store as their Santa. When he starts directing shoppers to other stores, for items not available at Macy's, most people see this as the true spirit of Christmas. Others don't, especially when he claims to actually be the real Santa. He ends up being put on trial for lunacy, and it is up to his friend Fred Galey to prove that Kris is indeed the one and only Santa. A great, family-orientated story for all ages.
